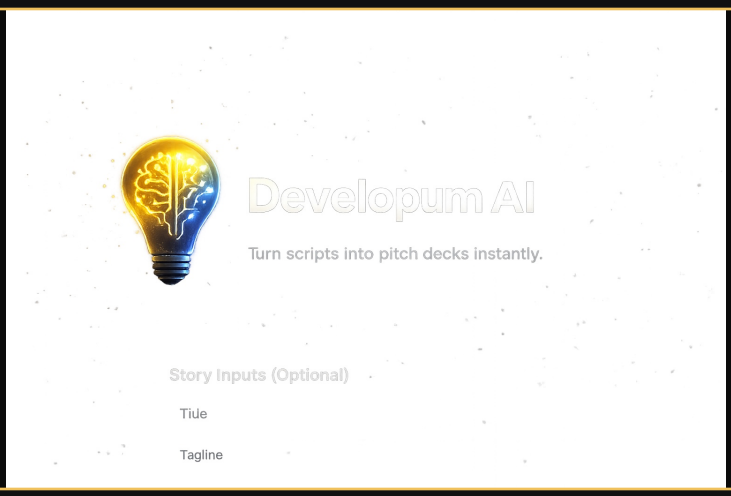
ACTOR PREP REPORT

FINN

COURT JESTER



ROLE SNAPSHOT

Finn reads as a role carried by pressure, control, and quick decisions. Across the current sides, the material most often asks for 'Hold Authority'. The strongest audition choice is usually specific, contained, and alive in the listening.

TONE

- playful, witty, satirical, adventurous

WORLD

- feature / fantasy satire comedy

DETECTED BEATS

- 93 playable beats
- 75 scene zones

AUDITION COMMAND CENTER

What the actor should play, protect, and avoid in the room.

CASTING READ

- See whether Finn can enter the scene with a clear want, not just a mood.
- Test how well the actor listens before pushing the next line.
- Protect the role's pressure without turning every beat into volume.
- Let the hold authority energy shape timing, stillness, and eye contact.

PLAYABLE TACTICS

- Charm
- Deflect
- Pressure
- Observe
- Pivot

EMOTIONAL TRIGGERS

- Humiliation
- Status shifts
- Public spectacle
- Unexpected danger

DANGER ZONES

- Overplaying intention
- Pushing emotion too early
- Ignoring listening beats
- Playing the joke instead of the objective

TAPE ROOM STRATEGY

A practical pass for self-tape, reader work, and performance choices.

MEMORIZATION BEATS

- Opening power move
- First pressure turn
- Status shift or reveal
- Control reset
- Exit beat / last impression

READER CHEMISTRY

- Pick fixed eyelines for each off-camera character.
- Let interruptions feel live rather than pre-timed.
- Use the reader to sharpen pressure changes, not flatten them.
- Stay responsive to pace shifts instead of locking one rhythm.

LOOK / PRESENCE

- Carry status in posture before dialogue.
- Let movement reflect court awareness and survival instinct.

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

93 beats grouped by type. Each group shows coaching and 3 pulled scenes.

HOLD AUTHORITY

- 47 beats · Page 3 – Page 32
- The baseline state of this role. The danger is flatness — keep it textured. Authority that never wavers reads as bored, not powerful.

■ PAGE 3

- 9. INT. JESTER DRESSING ROOM – CONTINUOUS
- "Oh it is definitely happening."

■ PAGE 3

- 9. INT. JESTER DRESSING ROOM – CONTINUOUS
- "One, you're not a noble. Two, you're in serious trouble."

■ PAGE 4

- 14. INT. SECRET TUNNEL – NIGHT
- "It does."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

READ THE SITUATION

- 11 beats · Page 3 – Page 22
- The character is assembling a picture in real time. Intelligence is the weapon. Let the audience watch the pieces connect.

■ PAGE 3

- 9. INT. JESTER DRESSING ROOM – CONTINUOUS
- "I run messages for half the castle. Which means I know two things."

■ PAGE 6

- 23. INT. CASTLE CORRIDOR – LATER
- "Cedric planted something, didn't he?"

■ PAGE 7

- 31. INT. TUNNEL CHAMBER – CONTINUOUS
- "This isn't normal. Nobody stores documents down here."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

NAVIGATE DANGER

- 10 beats · Page 11 – Page 20
- These are instinct beats. The character acts before they think. Stay in the body — deliberation kills the urgency of these scenes.

■ PAGE 11

- 47. EXT. GREY PASS – AMBUSH
- "Run!"

■ PAGE 14

- 67. EXT. ARENA – CONTINUOUS
- "Just stay on the horse!"

■ PAGE 14

- 70. EXT. TOURNAMENT ARENA – MOMENTS LATER
- "Elias! We have to leave right now!"

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

PRESSURE FOR INFORMATION

- 7 beats · Page 4 – Page 15
- The character isn't just asking — they're tracking what the other person gives away with each answer. Play the listening as much as the questioning.

PAGE 4

- 15. INT. CASTLE COURTYARD – MORNING

PAGE 5

- 17A. INT. CASTLE TUNNEL – NIGHT

PAGE 10

- 41. INT. CASTLE CORRIDOR – LATER
- "Cedric would never send you anywhere helpful."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

TEST AND PROBE

- 6 beats · Page 3 – Page 19
- This beat is a read. The character is listening for something in the response. The probe only works if it doesn't feel like one.

■ PAGE 3

- 10. INT. SECRET TUNNEL – NIGHT
- "Congratulations. You're now the most interesting fool in Valoria."

■ PAGE 4

- 16. EXT. ROYAL COURTYARD – DAY
- "Look at it this way — if they hate you, you'll at least be famous."

■ PAGE 5

- 19. EXT. FESTIVAL CROWD – LATER
- "Both, I think. Isabella smiles as Elias continues entertaining the crowd."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

SHARE INTELLIGENCE

- 5 beats · Page 3 – Page 20
- The character controls through what they know. Each detail shared is a deliberate choice about what to reveal and when.

■ PAGE 3

- 10. INT. SECRET TUNNEL – NIGHT
- "Dozens. Runners use them. Spies probably use them too. Finn grins."

■ PAGE 4

- 14. INT. SECRET TUNNEL – NIGHT
- "Because in this castle... jokes can start one."

■ PAGE 13

- 59. EXT. TOURNAMENT TOWN – DAY
- "It's the Valen Tournament. Happens every year."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

RESET AND MOVE FORWARD

- 2 beats · Page 13 – Page 23
- This is a pivot beat. The character absorbs what just happened and redirects — it should feel like a choice, not a collapse.

■ PAGE 13

- 62. EXT. MARKET STALL – CONTINUOUS
- "Good. Then no one will recognize you."

■ PAGE 23

- 131. INT. PALACE CORRIDOR – SAME TIME
- "That doesn't sound good."

CONTROL THE ROOM

- 2 beats · Page 20
- Calm is the weapon here. The character is slowing the scene down on purpose. Every steady breath is an assertion of power.

■ PAGE 20

- 106. EXT. ROAD CHASE – CONTINUOUS
- "Hold on! The horse bolts down the road as Cedric's riders pursue them."

■ PAGE 20

- 110. EXT. FOREST EDGE – MOMENTS LATER
- "Quiet. They wait as the thunder of hooves fades into the distance."

BEAT PATTERN BREAKDOWN

CHALLENGE

- 1 beat · Page 7
- The character refuses to accept the other person's version of reality. Anchor the refusal — this was a choice, not a reaction.

■ PAGE 7

- 30. INT. CASTLE TUNNELS – NIGHT
- "You said that yesterday."

EXPRESS THREAT

- 1 beat · Page 10
- Don't go to volume. The menace lives in specificity. The character knows exactly what they're capable of and wants the other person to feel that certainty.

■ PAGE 10

- 42. EXT. CASTLE COURTYARD – DAY
- "You still do that. Now people just try to kill you afterwards."

SET A BOUNDARY

- 1 beat · Page 19
- Play the clarity, not the anger. The line is already drawn. The beat is making the other person feel where it is.

■ PAGE 19

- 99. EXT. ABANDONED COURTYARD – MOMENTS LATER
- "And if we don't?"

FINAL AUDITION CHECKLIST

BEFORE YOU SEND

- Lead with the objective, not the emotion.
- Protect listening beats; that is where the role breathes.
- Choose one clean physical life for the character and keep it consistent.
- Let pressure alter pace before it alters volume.
- Check framing, sound, file name, and instructions before upload.